Since the custody order was issued, he has been coming to my home and yelling and insulting me. He has been saying I better watch my back once the TPO is over. On Monday 5/18/26, he told Alexis, our daughter, that once the TPO was over he would find a way to “handle business”. He has been constantly harassing me in court, trying to get me to break the TPO, trying to get me to talk to him, there has been a lot of parental alienation, and he won’t pay his child support. I am scared of him, This TPO is the only thing keeping me safe.

What Happened?

My ex husband has been emotionally, verbally, financially abusive for the past few years, his behavior has recently escalated to include sexual assault, property damage. The cops came to my house because I quietly called them, he woke me up before work, screaming at me telling me all kinds of horrible things. I called them because I did not feel safe and he told me that was okay because I'm not safe and he would give out my address to people and threatened me that they will kill me, he said "that they can come do what they will to me so be it if that meant killing me". He did this because he thought I was lying about people in my past. This woke up my children on a school night, this started around 1AM and the police came around 5AM. He has been using meth for months now and he was using this night. The cops came and gave me info about getting a TPO. After they left, he continued yelling at me and taking everything including the children's school laptops, my

What Happened?

One night, he forced himself onto me, I made it clear that I did not give consent and did not want to have sex with him. He was drunk and high that night and he forced himself on top of me. Since then, he sends me sexually explicit messages and tries to threaten me with them. He uses threats and humiliation to try and control me. I am scared that he will come home drunk or high again and will try to force himself on me again. He has threatened to not pay rent if I do not have sex with him. One night, he was yelling at me, I did not say anything because I had nothing to say. He kept yelling and threatened me, he got up and punched a hole through the wall that almost went all the way through to outside. The neighbors called the cops, they told him he needed to take walk and calm down, he was not arrested, the cops said they couldn't do anything because he punched the wall and not me, they gave me information about a TPO. He has personal property like my laptop. He continued to text me and threatened to take my kids. I went to work that day and when I came home, I found the house was trashed, he went through all my belongings, including my money in my purse and the kids' stuff, anything of value.

punched the wall before several times. He also kicked over the trash can and the dining table, which shattered and there was glass everywhere. This night he also kicked my dog. He left for three days and kept texting me suicidal threats, I reported this because I was worried about him, he kept saying he was going to wrap his car around the tree.
